

गान्धर्व महाविद्यालय

Gandharva Mahavidyalaya

NEW DELHI

PROSPECTUS 2024-25

Established in 1939, Gandharva Mahavidyalaya is one of the oldest and most distinguished cultural institutions of Delhi. Its role in imparting training to entire generations of music lovers and bringing Indian classical music and dance into the cultural mainstream is well acknowledged.

It was founded by Pandit Vinaya Chandra Maudgalya, and is currently headed by Pandit Madhup Mudgal.

Training

The Vidyalaya's main objective has been to commemorate the great saint-musician and resuscitator of Hindustani music, Pandit Vishnu Digambar Paluskar, and to keep up the ideals set down by him in order to popularize Indian classical music amongst the masses through

- modernized methods of instruction
- training of qualified teachers, and
- restoring music its rightful place as an integral part of our culture.

Courses of Study

Gandharva Mahavidyalaya, New Delhi, is affiliated to Akhil Bharatiya Gandharva Mahavidyalaya Mandal, Mumbai.

Theoretical and practical training is imparted in the following subjects:

a) Hindustani Music

- i) Vocal
- ii) Instrumental (Sitar, Flute, Tabla and Harmonium)

b) Indian Classical Dances

Odissi, Kathak, Bharatanatyam

The courses of study followed by the Vidyalaya are those approved by the Akhil Bharatiya Gandharva Mahavidyalaya Mandal, Mumbai:

1. Prarambhik (Elementary)
2. Praveshika (Pratham and Purna)
3. Madhyama (Pratham and Purna)
4. Visharad (Pratham and Purna)
5. Alankar (Pratham and Purna)

Note for New Admissions (2024 batch):

Examinations will not be conducted at the Vidyalaya. Students wishing to appear for exams will have to do so privately at other examination centres. However, training will be provided at the Vidyalaya from Prarambhik to Alankar Purna.

Special lessons and lecture-cum-demonstrations by visiting artistes and scholars of music are arranged from time to time for the benefit of the students. Special training is imparted to the students in the art of performing in public by way of monthly concerts of music, arranged under the guidance of the teachers.

- Only the candidates appearing for the audition will be permitted to enter the Vidyalaya premises. Relatives/friends accompanying the candidate, if any, will have to wait outside the gate. Only children below 15 years will be allowed to be accompanied by one parent/guardian, who will have to stay in the waiting area while the audition takes place.
- Kindly carry your own water bottles.
- Please cooperate with the Vidyalaya officials and staff in order to make the process as smooth and safe as possible.
- Gandharva Mahavidyalaya will take all necessary precautions to make sure that the audition process is safe, post-Covid times. However, it does not take any responsibility in case of unforeseen situations.

General Rules

1. Admission to the Vidyalaya is open to all persons irrespective of caste, creed, religion or gender. There are separate classes for male and female students in vocal music.

2. Applicants for admission are required to undergo a preliminary test/audition.

3. Kathak classes are for 45 minutes each, 3 days a week. All other classes are for 1 hour each, 3 days a week.

4. If the Tuition fee submission (along with late fees) is delayed for more than 1 month, students shall not be allowed to attend classes until all pending fees are paid. Those failing to pay fees for 2 consecutive months (along with late fees) will have their names struck off the rolls of the institute without prior intimation. In special cases where readmission is granted, admission fees will be payable again.

5. Students are required to keep fee-receipts for record.

6. All fees, once paid, are non-refundable.

7. Admission fees must be paid only after audition and final selection.

8. Attendance is strictly enforced and students are required to attend classes regularly. 75% attendance is compulsory. Please note that failing this, students will not be allowed to appear for examinations, and this can also lead to their names being struck off the Vidyalaya rolls despite their paying fees regularly.

9. A Student Identity Card is issued after admission. It is compulsory for students to carry this to the Vidyalaya. In case of loss of identity card, a new one will be issued on payment of Rs. 200/-.

10. In case of unavoidable circumstances, the teacher of any class can be changed during the course of annual study without prior intimation.

11. In the absence of a class teacher for a short period, arrangements will be made to provide a substitute teacher.

12. Any change in the address and contact details of a student should be immediately notified to the office.

13. No persons other than students of the Vidyalaya are allowed inside the classrooms except with the permission of the Principal.

14. Parents, guardians or children accompanying the student, who are not students of the Vidyalaya themselves, have to wait outside the building in the waiting area.

15. Students have to obtain prior permission of the Principal for participation in any public programme.

16. All students are expected to dress with decorum. Dance students have to follow an appropriate dress code as suggested by the teacher (Kurta-Churidaar/Salwaar-Kameez/Frock-Slacks, Dupatta). The dance dress may be brought in a bag and the students may change at the Vidyalaya.

17. Use of mobile phone is not allowed during class hours. It has to be kept on silent or switched-off mode. Any audio or video recording in the premises is strictly prohibited.

18. Personal belongings have to be guarded by the students themselves. The institution or its staff will not be held responsible for any loss.

19. The bag for vocal/instrumental class should contain notebook, pen/pencil etc. and dance class should contain ghungroo, notebook, pen/pencil, small towel etc. Students are encouraged to carry their own water bottles.

20. Music and dance training demands sincerity and hard work, and there are no shortcuts or easy fame. Parents are requested not to pressurize the teachers or Vidyalaya officials to have their ward included in choirs, performing troupes, etc. since such selections are based purely on merit.

21. If required, Bonafide Certificates will be issued to the student only after completion of 2 years' training.

22. Students are liable to pay for any damage and/or loss caused by them to any property (including musical instruments of the Vidyalaya).

23. The Vidyalaya remains closed on Sundays and observes important holidays of the year (notified from time to time). It closes for a period of approximately six weeks on account of summer vacation, around one week in October for Durga Pooja and for 2 weeks in December for Christmas/winter vacations.

24. Students are encouraged to participate in the cultural functions organized by the Vidyalaya.

25. Students are advised to read the notice board/website regularly.

26. Foreign students are required to submit copies of their passport, visa etc. It is mandatory for the Vidyalaya to inform immigration authorities about new admissions of foreign students.

27. Only first-aid medical facility will be available in the Vidyalaya.

IMPORTANT

- Indiscipline or misbehaviour by a student or parent/guardian, such as talking rudely, arguing with the teachers/staff, stalking, harassment, noisily disturbing the classes/Vidyalaya premises, destruction of Vidyalaya property, using abusive language or threat, delay in or nonpayment of fees, making audio/video recordings in the Vidyalaya premises, posting such files on social media, or failing to adhere to any rule of the institute may lead to the expulsion of that student.
- Rules and regulations are subject to change at the discretion of the Principal.
- In all matters, the decision of the Principal will be final.
